ed with pride and vociferated their pride with wild cheers, it was the instant that the Kansas City-St. Louis Jericho-Hallfax, any-old-place-Salt River banner was displayed. But lo, the poor banner. A silence as of the grave, fell over the multitude when the inscription was read. It reminded one of Sir John Moore's funeral, when "not a sound was heard, not a funeral note, etc."

Every Republican expected to hear a roar of applause that would have drowned the siren of the steamer, but the throats of the Democrats were still.

"What's the matter with you fellows, why don't you cheer?" exclaimed an enthusiastic Republican.

"Don't cheer boys, the poor fellows are dying," whispered a "leader."

"Where's the Nature Man?" exclaimed pretty young miss. "I heard that he was to carry the banner. Did he change his politics at the last moment?" But the Nature-Man had not changed his politics. He was on the upper deck of the steamer waving salutations towards his altar—the cattle pen, where visions of juicy chunks of beef and steaks passed before his enraptured eyes.

Finally some Democrat was ashamed into making some show of applause in honor of the banner. Some honey handed son of toil began to clap his hands. "Nobody else joined in the applause, but most everybody joined in the laugh that went up from lusty Republican throats. They ought to make that man governor!" exclaimed a sympathetic school miss who had gone to the steamer to see some favored teacher depart. "That man who applauded, was a brave man. I admire him but I don't think much of those Democrats."

Who ever managed the "grand farewell" was not onto his job. The Democratic forces were not properly organized. Several of the leaders declared that when they saw the emblem of Democracy, they were so overcome with emotion that they could not speak above a whisper. "Oh that's all right," declared some insinuating Republican. "If you had had a picture of the Hearst barrel pointed on that banner instead of having old Diamond Head, I bet there would have been plenty of cheering." And so the Democratic leaders walked up town, talking in harmony in the ranks and whether there really was a Hearst barrel or not and if there was, why wasn't it opened so a few of the numerous "muffs" could get greased with some of the "fat."

BROWN WONT RESIGN

The Garden Isle which arrived this morning in the mail from Kauai, contains a report that High Sheriff Brown is to resign his position for the purpose of taking charge of the management of the Molokai Cattle and Ranch Company. High Sheriff Brown was seen this morning regarding the report and said that there was no truth in the rumor. He stated that he was not interested in that particular ranch property and did not expect to be, and moreover, did not anticipate being placed in charge of any ranch property. He would not therefore resign.

WEALTH OF PAKE MONTE CRISTO

LIHUE, June 20.—The Garden Island publishes the following account of a fire at Kapala: Tuesday morning, at 1 o'clock, Kapala was started out of its slumbers by an alarm of fire.

The entire western part of Chinese Kapala was spent away, eight buildings in all having been completely destroyed, including the Chinese Temple, San Kee Jan's store and residence, Murashige's barber shop and Ah Lan's two-story building.

It is estimated that about $3000 worth of property was destroyed all without insurance except the contents of San Kee Jan's store which were insured for $3000.

The fire is supposed to have started in the pool shop, from a curtain being blown into a lighted lamp. The people in the shop had gone to sleep with the light burning.

About 200 people turned out and tried to put the fire out with buckets of water, but the buildings were frame and very dry and burned like tinder.

A pot of gold pieces said to be $10,000 was burned, and it was amusing to see the owner digging for them in the ashes afterwards. A few friends helped him and it is believed he recovered most of it. Some $700 in silver melted and was not found.

TO CELEBRATE "THE FOURTH"

CITIZENS MEET TO ARRANGE FOR FITTING CEREMONIES ON THE BIG DAY.

A meeting for the purpose of arranging for the proper celebration of the Fourth of July was held this morning in the throne room of the government building, some twenty prominent citizens attending at the call of Acting Governor Atkinson. The acting governor called the meeting to order and briefly stated the object for which it had been convened. Colonel Jones was chosen chairman, A. P. Taylor consented to act as secretary and W. W. Hall as treasurer.

Colonel Jones pointed out the necessity for arranging the matter of funds at the outset and suggested that the government might be expected to aid financially. This suggestion was met by the statement that after the first of next month there will be no fund available. To this the acting governor added the government was not in a position to spend any money at all. Nothing had been spent for public entertainment and nothing would be spent except for actual necessities. It was decided to give the treasurer power to select four assistants to form a finance committee and this committee was authorized to see what could be done in the way of raising a fund.

After a desultory discussion as to the different methods of featuring the day it was decided to form a general committee of twenty-one to be in general charge of the affair. The chairman, treasurer and secretary will be on this committee and the other eighteen are the nominees of the chair. Among the suggestions for the celebration of the national birthday were the firing of salutes, an outdoor service in the government grounds, literary exercises, athletic sports, fireworks and a ball. It was thought wise to defer action until the financial matters had been looked into and the meeting adjourned until Friday next at 11 a. m.

The following sub-committee named by Col. Jones, chairman of the executive committee, constitute the general committee: Col. J. W. Jones, chairman; A. P. Taylor, secretary; W. W. Hall, treasurer.

Finance Committee: C. M. Cooke, chairman; J. A. Gilman, S. E. Damon, L. E. Pinkham.

Literary, Musical and Printing Committee—W. R. Farrington, chairman; C. M. White, E. Faxon Bishop, E. M. Boyd, Ed Towse, J. H. Howland.

Sports Committee—D. P. R. Isenberg, chairman; A. A. Wilder, H. E. Murray, W. W. Harris, T. W. Hobron, C. F. Chillingworth.

Ball and Decorations Committee: Dr. M. E. Grossman, chairman; Col. Sumner Parker, F. C. Smith, F. W. R. King, Major George Porter, W. F. Dillingham, Dr. F. C. Hobdy.

Parades, Salutes and Fireworks: C. L. Crabbe, chairman; Lieut. J. C. Nichols, A. C. U. S. A., Captain Catlin, U. S. M. C., Lieut. Col. C. S. Zeigler, N. G. H., E. W. Gulon.

IROQUOIS TO PEARL HARBOR.
Captain Niblack took the U. S. S. Iroquois to Pearl Harbor this morning to attend to some surveying work at that place. He will return this afternoon.

A "ROCKY" CHARGE MADE.

Nawahine, Manuel Rodriguez, Frank Frima and A. J. Caldera were before Judge Lindsey this morning on a charge of larceny. It was claimed that they had swiped a part of a government lot. It appears that the native man and the other defendants, took some rocks from one side of a stream and built a wall to keep the Nuuanu stream from overflowing the land of the native. Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth promptly nolle prossed the case.

EDINGS' RULINGS FOR MATHEWMAN

THE SUPREME COURT IS ASKED TO SEND THE KONA SUGAR COMPANY CASE BACK.

The Kona Sugar Company case is to be passed up to Circuit Judge Mathewman and will be one of his first cases, if a motion which was filed in the Supreme Court this morning is granted. The motion was filed by Cathcart and Milverton as attorneys for C. J. Hutchins, trustee, and is a motion to have the records of the case, which were brought here on a writ of certiorari, returned to the Third Circuit Court.

The matter is to come before Judge Mathewman on a motion for a new trial, which was filed during Judge Edings' term but was never heard. It is claimed. Affidavits of M. F. Scott and Guy F. Maydwell, attorney for defendant in the case of the Kapiolani Estate vs. C. J. Hutchins, state that the motion for a new trial was duly made before Judge Edings and that before it was heard the records in the case were all transferred to the Supreme Court. Judge Edings heard the original trial and on May 5 gave a judgment for plaintiffs, for summary possession of the property involved, which is the property of the Kona Sugar Company. As the motion was never heard by Edings, it will be up to Mathewman to review the rulings of his predecessor on the Third Circuit bench.

In the Parker ranch case also Judge Mathewman is likely to have to take up the Edings rulings in the matter of an injunction restraining Low from attempting to take possession.

KAUAI NOTES.

LIHUE, June 20.—The Garden Island says: A daughter was born this Saturday morning to the wife of F. Mahn the popular head luna of the Lihue Plantation. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

Camp 7 Makaweli was visited by a cane fire, but owing to the promptness of the employees no serious damage was done. The damaged portion being right in the cutting field no time was lost in having the cane conveyed to the mill.

Mrs. H. D. Sloggett is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness.

EDWARD SEWALL SAILED.
